

Research Development Services • Office of Research and Economic Development

GRANT WRITING INSTITUTE

Monday–Friday • April 13 – 18

2015

Kolligian Library Room 232

INSTITUTE HIGHLIGHTS

BUILDING YOUR RESEARCH CAREER:

Strategies and techniques to help you plan, prepare and submit winning research proposals.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Contact:

Carmen Vien
cvien@ucmerced.edu

Day 1

- Research Grants Development and Administration at UC-Merced
- Cayuse 424: Electronic Research Administration
- Speed Networking

Day 2

- Grantsmanship for the Researcher • Parts I & II
Guest Speaker: Holly Falk-Krzesinski, Ph.D.
Instructor, Philanthropy and Non-Profit Organizations, Northwestern University; and Vice President, Global Academic Relations, Elsevier
Topics: Grant resources; funding agencies and opportunities; research program development; proposal components and planning; proposal specific aims, objectives and narratives; budget development; proposal submission; the review process.

Day 3

- Grantsmanship for the Researcher • Part III
- Team Science: Proposals, Planning, Leadership and Tools
Guest Speaker: Holly Falk-Krzesinski, Ph.D.
- Getting to Know Federal Funders
- Individual Consultations with Guest Speakers

Day 4

- Grant-Writing Workshop for Humanities Scholars
Guest Speaker: Barbara Walker, Ph.D.
Director of Research Development for the Social Sciences, Humanities, and Fine Arts, UC-Santa Barbara
- Early Career Proposals: Panel of Faculty Award Recipients

Day 5

- Proposal Review Process: Panel of Faculty Reviewers