

University of California, Merced

Resource Center for Community Engaged Scholarship: “ReCCES”

<http://communityresearch.ucmerced.edu/>

Robin DeLugan, PhD

Assoc. Prof of Anthropology & Faculty Director

rdelugan@ucmerced.edu

Stergios (Steve) Roussos, PhD, MPH

Co-Director & Interim Executive Director of the Blum Center

sroussos@ucmerced.edu

Community-engaged scholarship (CES) is:

- An approach for scientific and scholarly work (not a methodology)
- Applied across all scientific and artistic disciplines (not limited to the social sciences and applied fields)

Key premise: Scholarly and scientific inquiry is enriched and leads to greater societal impact when

- It aims to benefit the academy and the community
- Both the academy and community take responsibility for ensuring such mutual benefits.

Community-Engaged Teaching, Research & Service

Community-based participatory research

Practice-based research

Research

Teaching

Community-based learning

Practice-based learning

Service learning

Community –
Engaged

Service

Community service

Academic public health practice

Clinical service

Community-oriented primary care

Some Leading Agencies & Philanthropies with Explicit Support for CES

Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality

Annie E. Casey Foundation

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Department of Defense

Department of Education

Department of Justice

Ford Foundation

National Endowment for the Arts

National Endowment for the Humanities

National Institutes of Health

National Science Foundation

Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute

Rockefeller Foundation

The California Endowment

W. K. Kellogg Foundation

How can ReCCES help you?

1. Database of tools and tips for research, teaching, grant writing, and dissemination
2. Access to a growing network of faculty, student and community collaborators
3. Coaching to help you align your research and scholarly work with CES funders and professional initiatives
4. Support to effectively incorporate CES into your tenure and promotion process

How can you participate in ReCCES?

1. Attend ReCCES events (see calendar)
 - Monthly “IdeaShare”
 - Spring Conference & Research Week
2. Tell us what you are doing and need
 - How can we best support you?
 - What barriers can we help you overcome?
3. Join and grow the ReCCES Network
 - Tell your colleagues and students
 - Graduate Student Award competition